

A spoiler-sealed companion for long serials

Remember everyone. Spoil nothing.

Tell it the chapter you're on. It shows who's who, who stands with whom, and every hidden identity you've already earned. Written in red only where the text has earned it.

The seal is enforced in the database query, not the browser. Later chapters are never sent to your screen, so there is nothing to peek at.

No one by that name, as of Chapter III.

We won't say whether they ever appear. Even that would be a spoiler.
